CITÉ-JARDIN

retirement residence

making people's lives BETTER

PART OF OUR COMMUNITY SINCE 2001

Chartwell Cité-Jardin is located in an easily accessible residential area of Gatineau. From here, you are only a short trip away from the cultural centre, restaurants and cafés, as well as Promenades Gatineau shopping mall. Seniors seeking independent and assisted living lifestyles can choose from a wide variety of studio, two-, three- and four-bedroom apartments, as well as a secured designated area for those living with cognitive impairment.

You will be charmed by the sunny disposition of our home and our residents, as well as the stunning views from several of our apartments. Here, you can enjoy many amenities, including our on-site hair and beauty salons, theatre rooms and our piano and pool table. You can also enjoy some fresh air on your private balcony or from our lovely outdoor areas.

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

At Chartwell Cité-Jardin, you can say goodbye to chores and instead enjoy your retirement with the peace of mind you deserve. Our exceptional cuisine is well-known across the region, and you're invited to share and savour a delicious meal in good company in our dining room, bistro or terrace. When you aren't dining with us, you may find yourself enjoying an activity somewhere else in our home. We have many common areas and optional recreational programs, which can help keep you active and engaged. We also provide transportation services that can bring you to your appointments, help you run errands, or chauffeur you on our group outings in the lovely city of Gatineau.
