PART OF THE ST. THOMAS COMMUNITY

Chartwell St. Thomas is a modern retirement residence offering independent living, Memory Living, and senior townhouses all within one welcoming community. Our five-story residence is built for year-round comfort, with an indoor walking track, lush outdoor spaces, and beautifully landscaped gardens just steps from your door. With a full continuum of living options under one roof, our residence is well suited to support you through every stage of retirement.

Ideally located on Ross Street, our retirement community offers convenient access to the shops, services, and green spaces that make everyday living easy and enjoyable. From local dining and boutique retail to parks, trails, and essential amenities, everything you need is close at hand, with the broader communities of Southwestern Ontario just a short drive away.

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

The lifestyle at Chartwell St. Thomas is for people who want to lead active, connected, and inspired retirements. Whether you're walking the indoor track on a snowy afternoon, participating in a cooking class in the country kitchen, or enjoying the fresh air in our secure outdoor spaces, there are countless ways to enjoy each day at your own pace. Inside our residence, expansive amenity spaces provide welcoming places to socialize, pursue hobbies, and participate in wellness and recreational programming that supports a vibrant retirement experience.

Choose from pet-friendly studios and one-bedroom suites for independent living, or a studio suite in our Memory Living neighborhood. Prefer more space? Our senior townhouses offer two bedrooms, a full kitchen, a private garage, and your own yard. Whichever option feels like home, exceptional amenities, personalized care, and a vibrant community are always included.
