

CHARTwell
BANKSIDE
retirement residence

making people's lives BETTER

Enjoy a relaxing, worry-free lifestyle, featuring personal support options, modern amenities and gorgeous outdoor space.

PART OF OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY SINCE 1996

Chartwell Bankside is a newly renovated retirement community in a quiet, well-kept neighbourhood in Kitchener. Our lush location is a walker's paradise, as we are within close distance to many local amenities, including Highland Hills shopping plaza, and back onto serene conversation area. Our residents enjoy lovely leafy views that change with the seasons and often admire the trees, wildlife and our koi pond from our large back deck.

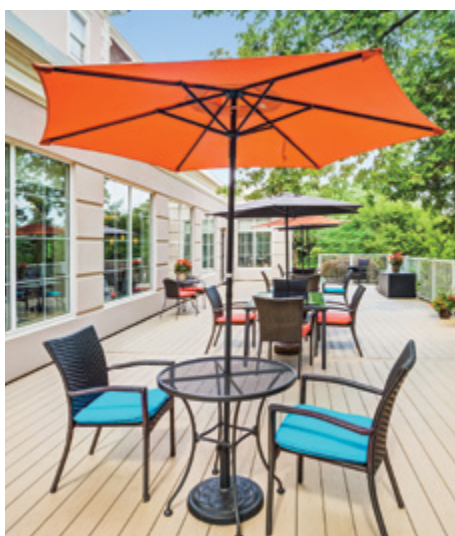

Offering well-appointed studio or one-bedroom suites, our entire residence serves as an extension to your personal living space. Our home features a modern, open concept feel and a welcoming ambiance. Newly-renovated amenities include our great hall—which serves as our activity space—dining room, bistro and back patio. Here, you can pursue your interests and enjoy life to the fullest, thanks to optional leisure and social activities, outings and entertainment, as well as amenities like a fitness centre, chapel and salon.

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

At Chartwell Bankside, we offer an independent supportive living lifestyle that provides you with the flexibility to choose from a host of personalized services so you can achieve comfort and convenience in your retirement years. Our dedicated, longstanding staff are here to support you and help you feel your best, allowing you to spend your time and energy on what's most important to you. Personal support services can include things like medication management, assistance with your morning or evening routine, and much more.
