PART OF OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY SINCE 2000

Chartwell Orchards is a reputable continuum of care retirement residence in the heart of Vineland offering a blend of country-house living with modern comforts and conveniences. Surrounded by lush orchards and boasting new renovations, our retirement community is a warm, welcoming place to call home, where you can comfortably age in place thanks to multiple levels of care available under one roof.

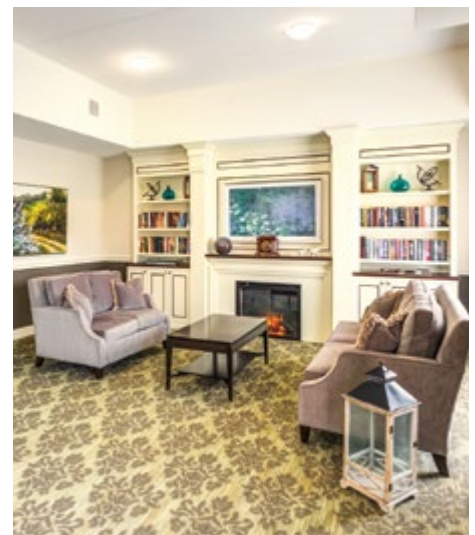

Part of Heritage Village—a community populated with private residences and premier facilities like the Heritage Village Recreation Club—residents of Chartwell Orchards can take full advantage of their desirable locale. Wine tours at award-winning vineyards, live theatre, antique shops, Balls Falls Conservation Area, swimming and fitness equipment at next-door Heritage Village Clubhouse—there's an abundance of active living opportunities just outside your doorstep!

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

To help ensure your well-being and satisfaction, we offer a complete range of personalized services delivered by our caring and friendly staff. In addition to delicious and nutritious dining, weekly housekeeping, and staff on-site 24-7, you can elect to receive independent supportive living, assisted living or memory care services that adapt to your changing needs and preferences.

When you aren't savouring a homemade meal alongside friends in our full-service dining room, you may find yourself participating in one of our many recreational experiences, either on-site or in Heritage Village's many membership-only amenities. A wide selection of engaging and diverse activities are available for you to choose from, including live entertainment, fitness classes, creative pursuits, social events, and outings. Add shuttle bus service and well-appointed suites into the mix, and you have retirement living at its finest!
