PART OF OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY SINCE 2003

Chartwell Colonel Belcher is a warm, open-concept retirement residence located in the pretty Parkdale neighbourhood of northwest Calgary, just off Memorial Drive. We're nearby so many convenient local amenities and destinations, including Market Mall, Ed Worthy River Walk Park, the Bow River and the trendy university district. Riverside Club is also across the street and features a pool and virtual golf, while downtown Calgary is an easy ten-minute drive away.

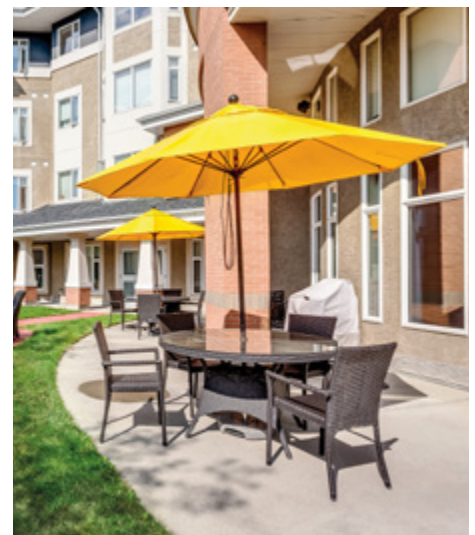

Here, you'll find a strong sense of friendship and community are woven through the fabric of daily life at our dynamic residence. You'll benefit from delicious dining options prepared by our award-winning Chef—who loves to serve pub food for big sports games—housekeeping, 24-hour emergency response and a choice of bright and spacious suites featuring 9-ft ceilings and full kitchens or kitchenettes. Care services can also be coordinated via Alberta Health Services or other third-party homecare providers.

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

The atmosphere at Chartwell Colonel Belcher is unlike any other retirement residence in the area—and that's due to the independent, active and downright fun individuals who live with us. Here, you are empowered with the choice and freedom to craft the lifestyle you want, which is why we have so many resident-led activities, including the operation of our pub—"The Mad Trapper"—the organization of our library, dinner parties, speaker series and numerous volunteer opportunities.

Our modern and comfortable amenities serve as the backdrop for all the activity. Strike up a friendly competition in the games room overlooking our pretty dining room; enjoy some fresh air in our newly landscaped courtyard; partake in Happy Hour in the pub; or join friends for a pint on the patio around the fire pit—it is easy to make new friends with so many pleasing ways to spend your day.
