Personal History

We want to get to know you! Please take the time to tell us about yourself in as much detail as possible so we can best assess your application.

Nominators: Please remember that all questions refer to the senior you are nominating.

1. Tell us about yourself and your life. You may want to include past occupations, your family, your interests and passions.

2. Tell us about your life right now—where you live, how you spend your time, and what you enjoy. (20 words minimum)

3. Have you been involved in your community or served in the military? Please share details about any volunteering, mentoring, charitable work, or military service—including branch, dates, duties, and any honors received.

Chartwell Wish of a Lifetime makes every effort to accommodate cognitive and physical limitations when planning wishes.

4. Are there any physical or cognitive limitations that may influence the ability to participate in the wish? If yes, please describe and tell us what support is needed to enable the senior to fulfill their wish.

By signing below, I acknowledge that acceptance of this application by Chartwell Wish of a Lifetime (CWOL) does not constitute a commitment by CWOL to fulfill my wish request. If CWOL determines that this wish should enter the next stage of the wish process, a CWOL representative will contact me for more information. I understand that this contact also does not constitute a commitment to grant my wish. Furthermore, I certify that I meet all qualifications for eligibility, and declare that all of the information given by me in this application is true to the best of my knowledge, and I agree to inform CWOL in a timely manner should any information provided in this application change. Should the wish be granted, I understand that I am fully committed to participate in the experience to the best of my ability.
