making people's lives BETTER

Lead an empowering lifestyle in an engaging, close-knit community, set in beautiful natural surroundings in Barrie.

PART OF OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY SINCE 2006

Chartwell Whispering Pines is a well established independent supportive living retirement residence with a strong local reputation in the picturesque city of Barrie. Our resident community is welcoming and inclusive, and you'll often find residents enjoying our engaging social and recreational experiences or involved in our local community with a charitable giving project. Conveniently located near Highway 400, on route to cottage country, we are close to an abundance of amenities within walking and driving distance, including shopping, restaurants, grocery and liquor stores, coffee shops, banks, a golf course, and more. Just a few minutes away, you'll find vibrant and beautiful downtown Barrie, where you can explore upscale boutiques, great restaurants and local festivals, including the jazz and film festival. Outdoor enthusiasts will also enjoy Kempenfelt Bay's many waterfront trails, offering unparalleled views of Lake Simcoe.

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

We welcome you to experience our lively atmosphere, where you'll find bright and spacious studio and one-bedroom suites—many boasting great views—and open-concept amenities on the main floor. We recently renovated some of our on-site amenities—including our dining room, country kitchen, spa and reception! You'll find all of our amenities are designed for your comfort and accessibility, allowing you to take advantage of our many social experiences. There's also our stunning outdoor courtyard with comfortable seating, where you can take in enchanting views of our mature trees and go for a peaceful stroll along our walking paths.

Here, we offer three delicious and nutritious meals per day, housekeeping, medication management, optional social and leisure experiences, as well as a variety of personal care services, empowering you to enjoy the active, fulfilling and flexible retirement lifestyle you deserve.
