

CHARTwell
WESTMOUNT
retirement residence

making people's lives BETTER

Experience serene, social and supportive retirement living in a highly sought-after neighbourhood featuring protected wetlands.

PART OF OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY SINCE 2012

Chartwell Westmount Retirement Residence is tucked away on beautifully manicured grounds bordering the Laurentian Wetlands nature sanctuary. A true continuum of care approach defines our lush suburban home in Kitchener's growing Laurentian West neighbourhood, where you can benefit from convenient local amenities such as shops, restaurants, banks, grocery stores and places of worship.

Our retirement community offers an independent supportive living lifestyle, as well as a specially designed assisted living neighbourhood if you need more care support in future. Here, you'll find a choice of bright and spacious studio, one-, one-plus-den and two-bedroom suites—all with Juliet balconies offering gorgeous views overlooking our lush wetland locale. Wildlife lovers will enjoy the many distinct species that also call the grounds of Chartwell Westmount home, including turtles and frogs!

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

Indoors, you'll find our home is open and bright, thanks to soaring ceilings and large windows offering views of our greenspace. We provide a variety of superb amenities that complement the active and fulfilling lifestyle you desire, including an exercise room, demonstration kitchen, movie theatre and hair salon. Whether you're enjoying a coffee and cookie in the bistro, laughing with friends over a meal in our social dining room, or simply relaxing in your suite, you'll find Chartwell Westmount feels like a true home and community.

We're also the ideal retirement choice for seniors who want the peace of mind that comes from knowing more supportive care options are at the ready. Here, you can comfortably age in place, thanks to the availability of optional care services and support such as medication management, assistance with your morning or evening routine, and other personalized services reflective of your needs and preferences.
