

making people's lives BETTER

Bilingual retirement residence in Cornwall offering the social lifestyle you deserve.

PART OF OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY SINCE 2005

Chartwell McConnell is a welcoming bilingual retirement residence set on beautifully landscaped grounds in central Cornwall. We offer a wide range of lifestyle and service options under one roof, including independent living in our retirement home, as well as seniors' apartments in our adjacent apartment building. That means you will have the confidence and flexibility to age in place, as you'll have access to personalized care services you may need now or in the future.

The energy and warmth that defines the atmosphere here is palpable as soon as you walk through our doors. We may be a large home, but our community of residents and staff feels intimate. Don't be surprised to find residents dancing or enjoying a musical performance, maintaining their garden plots in our lush outdoor space, or simply laughing together over a card game.

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

If you choose the independent living lifestyle in our main retirement residence, you'll truly enjoy the best that retirement living has to offer. You'll not only benefit from delicious and nutritious dining, housekeeping and social experiences, but can also take advantage of a complement of care services through our Care Assist program. Medication management, assistance with your morning or evening routine, an escort to meals and activities, and many more personalized services can be added to your independent living package.

And if you choose to call one of our seniors' apartments home, you'll not only benefit from a maintenance-free lifestyle, but also weekly housekeeping, parking and staff on-site 24/7. À la carte care options, as well as meal packages, are also available at an additional fee. Here, you can enjoy your retirement years to the fullest, with the freedom and flexibility to opt into only those services that can make your life better.
