retirement residence

making people's lives BETTER

Experience the independent retirement you desire with the personalized, flexible services you need in beautiful Whitby.

PART OF OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY SINCE 1996

Chartwell Colonial is an intimate, well-established retirement residence in Whitby—part of a mature residential area—offering independent supportive living options for an active, fulfilling retirement. Featuring lush outdoor green spaces, you'll find our cozy retirement home is well known for providing exceptional personalized care services and a homey atmosphere where our diverse community of residents and staff knows one another well.

Conveniently located near downtown Whitby, our residents cherish the neighbourhood we call home, especially as we're within a short walking distance of many local amenities, including coffee shops, places of worship, shopping, and medical clinics on Brock Street North. The Whitby Curling Club and adjacent Bradley Park are also just down the street, as well as great local restaurants, malls, a naturopathic clinic, and Tim Horton's. If you're looking for a great place to enjoy nature, you can visit Whitby's Shores Waterfront Trail to stay active.

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

The living experience of our residents is elevated thanks to our own well-manicured walking paths around the building, where you can enjoy peaceful strolls and a newly renovated outdoor patio that further adds to our comfortable, family home feel. Indoors, you'll discover spacious amenities and a wide range of optional life enrichment programs for a more fulfilling and active social life. We also have a strong reputation locally and are very involved in many community service projects, especially the town's beloved Whitby's Bazaar—meaning you can not only stay active and engaged within our residence, but outside of it too.

We offer a selection of well-appointed studios with kitchenettes, one-bedroom and companion suites. In addition, you'll also benefit from conveniences like delicious meals, medication management, monthly housekeeping, laundry, and staff on-site 24/7 to support you.
