

making people's lives BETTER[®]

Enjoy a vibrant independent lifestyle with optional assisted living services in an established residence.

PART OF THE SOUTH SURREY COMMUNITY SINCE 1997

Chartwell Crescent Gardens is an established continuum of care retirement community in beautiful South Surrey right off Highway 99 on King George Boulevard. We offer a unique combination of accommodation and support options, including multiple levels of support under one roof—from independent supportive living suites, to access to assisted living services, to long term care featuring 24-hour nursing support. Here, you have the flexibility to choose the lifestyle that best reflects your needs and preferences to comfortably age in place.

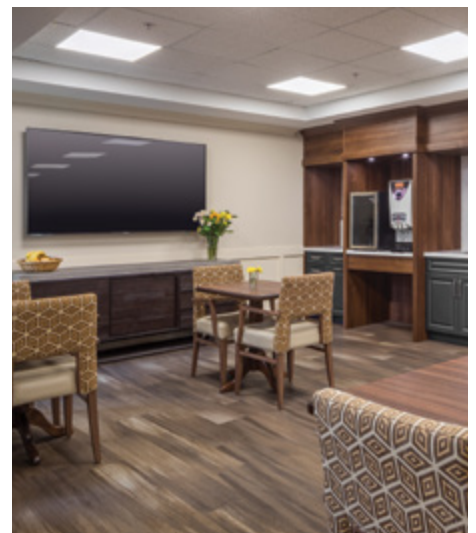

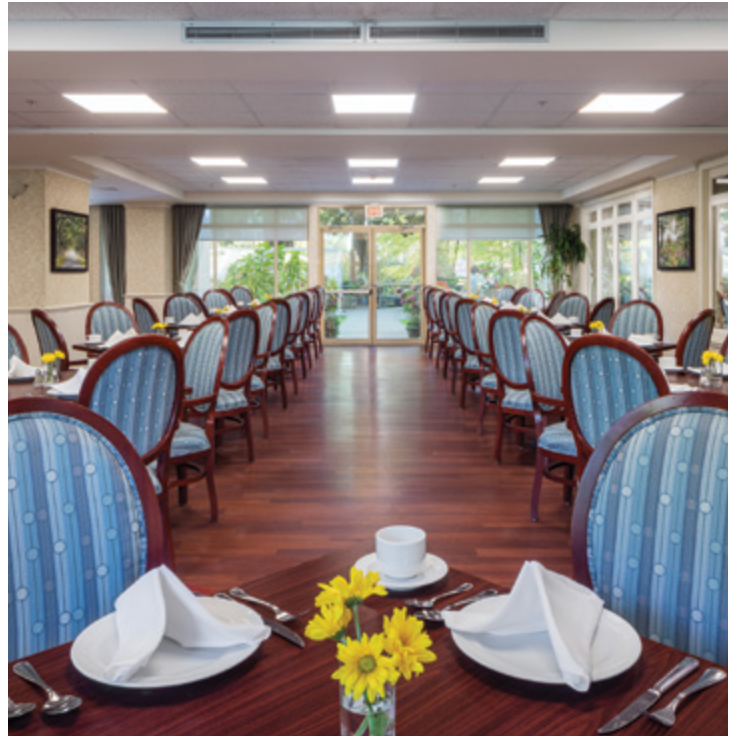

One of the aspects of life here that our residents are most taken by is our stunning outdoor space. Our courtyard is a lush oasis dotted with mature trees, patio umbrellas, raised garden beds and shaded walking paths. You'll find the serenity of our lovely locale will tempt you out of doors often.

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

If you're an active individual looking to benefit from restaurant-style dining, leisure and social opportunities and conveniences like housekeeping and shuttle service for shopping and wellness appointments, our independent living suites are the perfect fit for your lifestyle. We're known for our large suites with beautiful windows that come in a variety of thoughtful layouts, including one-, one-plus-den and two-bedroom suites, some with full kitchens, patios, balconies and exclusive courtyard views. We also feature an abundance of underground parking for residents who still drive or visiting family and friends.

Meanwhile, if you believe you'd benefit from daily care and wellness support that can help you live more comfortably, we also offer a wide variety of flexible assisted living services in our independent living suites, such as medication management, help with your morning or evening routine, assistance with dressing or bathing, and much more.
