PART OF OUR COMMUNITY SINCE 2000

Chartwell Domaine Notre-Dame is well-situated in the peaceful Hull sector of Gatineau. Located on Amherst street, our residence offers all the advantages of city living, with nearby access to Boulevard des Allumettières and major Gatineau arteries. We offer the perfect balance of urban living and nature, with Gatineau Park close by, as well as shops, restaurants and other urban conveniences. You will never run out of things to see and do!

We provide independent seniors with a wide choice of apartment types, such as studio and one-bedroom layouts, with additional care and support options also available for seniors who require assisted living services. Whichever option you choose, you will enjoy a bright, peaceful atmosphere and spacious apartments that will make you feel right at home.

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

Located on the former site of the Sœurs du Sacré-Cœur convent, Chartwell Domaine Notre-Dame offers an engaging lifestyle in a family-like atmosphere, where our friendly staff and residents will get to know you. Our common areas provide everything you could think of, including a computer room, hair salon, and zootherapy sessions for animal lovers. To help you stay active, our beautiful flower garden and walking paths are the perfect places for a breath of fresh air. We also offer scheduled outings and entertaining social and recreational activities. In addition, you can also visit our lovely on-site chapel, which provides a place for quiet reflection. And thanks to the support of our dedicated staff, you can rest easy knowing that you have access to additional on-site services as your needs change over time.
